

PLANNING COMMISSION

The City of Lake Stevens is a non-charter code city operating under the mayor-council plan of government.<sup>1</sup> The City has an elected mayor and seven council members. The City's seven Planning Commission members serve four-year terms and are appointed by the Mayor with confirmation by the Council. Members of the Planning Commission serve as volunteers without compensation.

The Planning Commission is the principal planning advisory body to the City Council for matters relating to land use, the Growth Management Act, comprehensive planning and zoning issues. The Planning Commission holds regular evening meetings (7:00 p.m.) on the first Wednesday of the month. Occasionally a Planning Commission meeting is held on the third Wednesday of the month.
